W. C. CHAMBERS & SON,

A Family Paper, Devoted to Literature, Science, Agriculture and Ceneral News.

VOL. V.-NO. 30.

PAINESVILLE, LAKE COUNTY, OHIO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1876.

WHOLE NO. 238.

LATEST NEWS.

THE OLD WORLD.

A telegram from Vienna on the 20th Herzegovinian insurgent leader. In consequence of the concentration of Turkish troops on the Mantenegrin frontier the Prince of Montenegro had summoned a council of Senators and military was threatened with a like fate, but was finally officers, which resolved that if such concentration spared. She confessed to repeated attempts to took such proportions as in effect to blockade poison her husband, and accused herself of incontenegro on that side it should be considered a casus belli, and the Prince should summon all | begged pitifully for her life. ntenegrins able to bear arms and march into Herzegovina to the aid of the insurgents. Victor Hugo has issued an address to his five children perished in the flames. the Senatorial delegates for Paris and F ance, in which he asks them to found a democracy which shall end foreign war by arbitration, civil war by amnesty, and distress by education.

A London dispatch of the 21st annonnces the arrest of R. B. Oakley, proprietor of the Corporative Credit Bank, on charges of fraud, false pretenses and conspiracy. He was examined and committed without bail.

A Madrid telegram of the 21st says the elections for members of the Cortes were proceeding in an orderly manner throughout Spain. A collision occurred on the Great caused the death of thirteen persons and the serious injury of many others. The collision took place in the midst of a blinding snow-storm. Among the killed was a son of Dion Boucicault,

A Ragusa dispatch of the 22d reports Turks, in which the former were generally suc-cessful. Trebigny was threatened with famine. It was reported that the Porte had accepted Count rassy's proposal for the pacification of the Spain has instructed her representatives at the various Eastern courts to inform the authorities of each that after the defeat of the Carlists, which is shortly expected, she hopes to be able to make short work of the Cuban in

A Paris telegram of the 24th says another conspiracy against the life of Prince Milan has been disc vered at Belgrade. The corpse of the late Chevalier Rossi was publicly cremated in the Milan (Italy) Mon-

A Vienna telegram of the 25th says the various powers had received a communica-tion from Turkey stating that she should occupy Montenegro if her Government did not cease gi

A Madrid dispatch of the 25th says the total number of deputies elected to the thirty were support rs of Sagasta, ten clericals, one cantonalist, one moderate Republican (Senor Castelar), and 364 ministerialists. The National troops had begun a simultaneous attack upon all the Carlis' positions in the provinces of Alava, Biscay and Guipuzcoa.

Berlin dispatches of the 25th report the existence of a financial crisis at Riga in Russia.

the office of the News and Press, at Cimarron. fixtures into the river. The trouble originated

A Washington dispatch of the 20th says coal carrying and producing interests, held in New York on the 2 th, it was agreed that there The Wisconsin State Republican Conention will be held at Madison on the 22d of to the House of Representatives copies of the correspondence between Secretary Fish and Minister Cushing and other foreign Metrics and Sauthers Decided to the National Railroad Convention recently held in St. Louis was presented, setting forth the advantages of certain thorough fares and asking and for Sauthers Decided to the National Railroad Convention recently held in St.

on the 23d state that, the week before, an insurgent force, led by Henry Reeves, had destroyed several sugar estates, some of which were worth $2,000,000 each. Sagua La Chica, had been burned, and over 1,800 bogsheads of sugar in the warehouses there consumed. The estate of Cayas in the hands of the insurgents, and of course | sion on the 22d.

that there are in circulation spurious bills of the First National Bank of Indianapolis, First Na-sale clothing firm in Boston, have suspended, in consequence of the falsification of their books by their confidential book-keeper, Frank Sanford, ing three men, wounding two, and totally wreck-ing the bridge, loc motive and eleven freight nown, made her appearance in the hall of the London National Temperance League on the isit Philadelphia in July.

reports the resignation of Ljubebracht, the latter's husband, were taken from the jail in

"Doc Mangum," a noted so ut on the Federal

A Louisville (Ky.) dispatch of the 24th says that Paris, Ky., is just now sadly financially depressed. It was thought that fifteen or twenty f the business firms would be seriously crippled and compell d to suspend.

Rev. S. C. Bartlett, of Chicago, denies that an investigating committee of the Congregaional Church has been called to investigate the Northern Railway, in England, on the 22d, which but says the Congregational brethren will not council, and that steps to this end will probably

The Mrs. MacKenzie whose elopement A Ragusa dispatch of the 22d reports from Montreal occurred not many days ago, was continued fighting between the insurgents and the owner, and not Sir Hugh MacKenzie, as first tele-graphed. She is a niece of Sir Hugh Allan, proprictor of the Allan line of steamers.

According to a Boston dispatch of the 25th, E. D. Winslow, a well-known journalist of the biggest that city had been detected in forging paper from which he realized about $107,000, and had fled with his family to parts unknown. Grave doubts having arisen as to the egality of the recent Senatorial election in Iowa ause it was held on the first Tuesday after the organization of the Legislature instead of the man named Myatt with crucity to a dog, second, as required by law, a second election was by biting its tail off. The defendant adheld on the 2"th, which resulted as before in the

Buffalo, N. Y., President; Edward S. Ralph Secretary and Treasurer. Messrs. John E. Diehl, of Philadelphia. P. Williams, of Taunton, Mass.. and Edward L. Lamb, of Chicago, were elected as a Centennial Committee, to represent the Assocition at the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition. In the case of Brownlee, on trial at whether the long-expected bill providing Indian polis, for alleged complicity in the whisky for the examination of German shipfrands, the jury on the 25th returned a verdict of

According to a Washington dispatch of the 25th the President had replied to the resolu-tion adopted by the House of Representatives, early as possible the river be abandoned On the night of the 19th a mob attacked European Government except Spain in relation use," and that the sanction of the British

the "real obstruction to Pinchback's admission House of Representatives on the Centennial Ap-to the Senate at present is the question whether propriation bill:

the "real obstruction to Pinchback' a admission to the Senate at present is the question whether there is a de jure Government in Lonisiana."

The Moody and Sankey revival meetings in Philadelphia have been closed. Mr. Moody is reported to have said that he regarded the revival in that city as the most successful had ever been instrumental in conducting. The number of meetings and Bible readings held during the eight weeks was 348. The total of attendance was 900,000, and the expenses about $9.000. At the closing meeting, held on the 19th—the twenty-first anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association—over 12,000 persons were present and as many more were turned away for lack of room A col lection of over $10,000 was taken up to aid in the completion of the new building belonging to the organization. One lady whose son had been converted gave as a thank-offering a diamond ring, for which a gentleman gave $1,000.

Eight residents of a boarding-house in Columbus Ohio, were taken seriously ill, on the $20th, from eating diseased pork. Other persons in the city had been similarly affected and from a similar cause.

At a Republican caucus of the Maine Legislature, had on the evening of the 20th, delegates were chosen to the National Republican Convention will be held at Lancaster on the 22th. Recolutions were adopted demanding the withdrawal of the National Bank icrulation and the Issue, of greenbacks, to be a legal tender for all debts, except the public debt contracted to be paid in gold, and interchangeable for registered bonds bearing 3 per cent. interest, to be paid in gold, and interchangeable for registered bonds bearing 3 per cent. interest, to be paid in gold or legal-tenders, said bonds being redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, and declaring that the transportation in the case of greenbacks, to be a legal tender for states of the contracted of the United States.

The Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention will be held at Lancaster on the 22th Record of the Convention will be held at Lanca ment, and declaring that the transportation interests of the country should be under the direct supervision and control of the public authorities of the nation. State, county, township or city, according to its inter-State or local character.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Ohio Republican State Convention has been called to meet at Columbus on the 29th of March next.

George H. Jacobs was hung at Joliet, on the 21st, for the marder of his wife in May last. On the same day Marshall Crain, a hired assaisin of one of the parties to the Wilnamson County vendetta, was hanged at Marion, Ill.

At a meeting of the several anthracite

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.—On the 20th sundry petitions were presented asking the repeal of the law requiring a two-cent stamp for bank checks...Mr. according to its interestate of its May at of 1884; to provide for challenges to jurors in trials for bigamy and polygamy in Utah; to maend Sec. of the act relating to courts in Utah; to amend the act relating to courts in Utah; to discuss and post-roads.... The resolution to continue the strength of the law requiring a two-cent stamp for bank checks....Mr. according to its interestate or local character.

George H. Jacobs was hung at Joliet, on the 21st, for the marder of his wife in May last. On the same day Marshall Crain, a hired assession of one of the parties to the Wilnamson County vendetta, was hanged at Marion, Ill.

At a meeting of the several anthracite

HOUSE—An adverse report was made House .-- An adverse report was made on the bill to reduce the postage on first class mail matter to one cent for each half ounce...

The Centennial Appropriation bill was debated in Committee of the Whole-Messrs. Townsend of New York, Jones of Kentucky, Banks and Swan favoring, and Messrs. Stenger of Pennsylvania, Feiton and Cook opposing... Adjourned. SENATE .- On the 21st the memorial of

House.—A bill was passed—142 to 100

Candless, of the Western District of Pennsylva-nia, in consequence of physical disability... The resolutions in honor of the memory of the late Vice-President were taken up and enlogies were pronounced by Messrs. Warren, Harris (Mss.) Kelley, Knott, Aymer, Kasson, Banks, Lynch, Hurtbut, Lawrence, Lapham, Reagan, Joyce and Blair, after which the resolutions were adopted. While the enlogies were being pronounced enan-imous consent was given to a proposition to ex-tend to a delegation of Indiana editors the privi-leges of the floor....Adjourned. SENATE.-The Senate was not in ses-directing the Committee on Appropriations to in-quire into the expediency of making any appro-were presented from Ohloans asking that Congressional aid be extended to the Texas Pacific traffic was debated ... Adjourned.

A Madrid dispatch of the 23d says the Ministry had seemed a considerable majority in the new Cortes.

The Russian Imperial Academy has ed as corresponding members Prof. New-comb, of the Naval Observatory, Prof. Gould. of the Argentine Republic, and Prof. Whitney, of New Haven.

Edward Williams and a Mrs. Meling, who had been arrested for the murder of the latter's husband, were taken from the jail in latter's husband, were taken from the jail in branch of the public se vice; instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire whether improper and fraudulent means were resorted to to in-fluence legislation on the Texas Pacific bill of March 3, 1871.... Adjourned.

SENATE .- On the 25th a petition, signed by a large number of ladies, was presented, a k- Why do you come, St. Valentine, dear? ducing Williams to commit the murder, but begged pittfully for her life.

The residence of Alexander Ellerbe, of Marion, S. C., was burned a few days ago, and his five children perished in the flames.

The Jackson (Tenn.) Whig and Tribune of a recent date announces the assessment of the House of Representatives.

Adjourned. ing for the establishment of a government in the House.-A bill was passed providing that, except in cases of specific disability, no in-crease of pension shall be allowed to commence prior to the date of the examining surgeon's certificate, and repealing the law makin; bounty land warrants personal property. The Centennial Appropriation bill was discussed in Committee of the Whole, and after the adoption of an amendment requiring the payment in full to the Treasury of any balance left in the hands of the Finance Committee b fore any dividends are naid Finance Committee b fore any dividends are paid to stockho'ders, was reported to the House and passed—146 to 130....Adjourned.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

On the 1st inst, the new monetary sys tem of Germany went into universal and compulsory operation throughout the Em-pire. It had been in partial and legal operation for some time. THERE's nothing mean about the Sultan of Turkey. His servants at the palace orietor of the Allan line of steamers.

A party of miners arrived in Bismarck the stables 400, the menagerie 200, and > Church. It is to be of the newest invention, and will fill the building properly perhaps—a slice of lemon? Thank you with sound, hitherto inadequately given and sugar; that'll do. Now for my forth by the instruments used.

THE Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals lately charged a mitted the act, but declared that his object was to prevent the puppy from having the | cargo and a couple of cabin passengers. The American Poultry Association re-tently met in Chicago, and elected the following differers for the ensuing year: Charles A. Sweet, of the second that Myatt's object was to be benefit the animal.

The Good Hope was commanded by Capt. McFarlane, a hard-headed old Scotchman. John Williamson first mate, HERR KAPP has announced that in the whether the long-expected bill providing for the examination of German ship-wrecked sailors will be soon introduced.

The water of the Thames is full of impurities, and the Pollution of Rivers Commissioners, have recommended that as o intervention in Cuba. Our Ministers abroad Government be in future withheld from were merely instructed to read the letter addressed to Mr. Cushing to the Governments to which they were respectively accredited.

The following is the vote in detail in the House of Representatives on the Centennial Appropriation bill:

The following is the vote in detail in the House of Representatives on the Centennial Appropriation bill:

A BERLIN correspondent of the Kolmische Zeitung disputes Prince Bismarck's mate, came up and summoned me aft to see one of our two cabin passengers, Mr. William Grierson, who had been very unwell during the night, and began to be remarks concerning the inferiority of the afraid that he was in for a touch of the sa riority of the German and the superiority of the English press. He says that since the days of the English Parliament, when young M. newspaper men, he has never had a good pinion of German journalism. Wallenhas a like antipathy toward the press.

THE closing of the Franciscan monastery at Salminister, in Germany, having been directed by the authorities, everything portable within the building was carried off by the monks, not excepting the stoves. One gigantic stove, however, withstood their efforts, and was purchased at the Government sale of the property by Prince Ysenburg Birstein. This mam-Prince Ysenburg Birstein. This mammorth stove, which stood in the refectory moth stove, which stood in the refectory ing rapidly."

"Humph!" said the Captain; "mysmeth least of it. Does he of the monastery, is said to have been built in the fifteenth century, and, according to the monks, is the identical stove at which Martin Luther, on his return from the Diet of Worms, warmed himself in the house of his friend Ulrich von Hutten. A FRENCH connoisseur lately entered a running to renew his proposition, but in vain. One day a man came to M. A.'s apartments to show him some old china plates, and induced him to visit his shop in the Batigonolles. To his surprise and delight M. A. saw in an obscure corner of the shop a vase exactly similar to the coveted Dresden, and eagerly secured it for £48, with the assurance that the pair, if forthcoming, would be worth £400. M. A. rushed off to the first dealer, and offered him his own price for the vase. "Ah," said he, "you come too late; I sold it yesterday to a dealer at the Batig-

INDUSTRIAL.

THERE are nineteen merchants' mills flour per day. According to calculation the forests of the United States will hold out but seventy years longer, if nothing is done to renew

A Vienna telegram of the 23d says an Austrian corps of observation, numbering 50,000 men, had been ordered to the Dalmattan frontier.

A Model dispersion of the 23d says an Austrian corps of observation, numbering 50,000 men, had been ordered to the Dalmattan frontier.

A Model dispersion of the 23d says an austrian corps of observation, numbering 50,000 men, had been ordered to the Dalmattan frontier.

A Model dispersion of the 23d says an austrian corps of observation, numbering 50,000 men, had been ordered to the Dalmattan frontier.

A Model dispersion of the 23d says and soint to the sugar refineries, where they are ground to a fine my hand."

He paused, for a violent spasm seized both the first which attended the unlucky bequest of the box which are they are removed and soint to the sugar refineries, where they are ground to a fine my hand."

He paused, for a violent spasm seized him, and it was not for some time that I would rather die so than accept the my hand."

He paused, for a violent spasm seized him, and it was not for some time that I would rather die so than accept the my hand."

A Model dispersion of the 23d says an invertible spasm seized him, and it was not for some time that I would rather die so than accept the my hand."

House.—Bills were introduced—to bond the legal-tender debt of the United States; to provide for cheap transportation between the oil that rises to the surface of the boiling mass is skimmed off and manufactured could recover him sufficiently to enable of the Could recover him sufficiently to enable of t

A VALENTINE.

On! little loveliest lady mine, What shall I send for your Valentine! Summer and flowers are far away; Gloomy old Winter is king to-day.

P ithee, St. Valentine, tell me here, Why do you come at this time o' year? Plenty of days when lilies are white, Plenty of days when sunbeams are bright ve searched the gardens all through and through a bud to tell of my love so true. But bads were asleep and blossoms were dead. And the falling snow came down on my head. So, little loveliest lady mine, re is my heart for your Valentine!
-L. E. R., St. Nicholas for February.

A BOX OF DIAMONDS.

Well, as I said before, I don't mind telling you the story. It's a good many years ago now since it happened, before the days of the mail companies and Glasalmost a hundred to one against you ever setting foot again in old England. However, here I am, laid up like an old hulk for the remainder of my days, with nothing to fall back upon but my memories of the past; and sad memories some of them are, you may stake your life. I was a young man then, and had been knocking about in the Brazils and the West Indies everywhere in South America, I may say, for I believe I made one of the parties of Englishmen to cross the Andes om Valparaiso to Buenos Ayres, no on the 24th from the Black Hills. They state that 1,200 men are at work in the Hills, meeting with vives number 1,200! A FRENCH manufacturer of organs has laid a proposition before the Pope to put the savage Indians of the Pampas. I am not going, however, to tell you anything

As I said before, I had been knocking around a good deal in South America, and shipped as doctor on board of an old tub of a trader leaving Rio Janeiro, homeward bound for Bristol, with a full and a crew of thirteeen hands, all told next sitting of the German Parliament he will ask the Government whether the accident which has befallen the German County Detection on the 14th of December a Maria 161d, made up of Englishmen, Dutchmen, Swedes, and a couple of niggers, one of whom was the steward's mate. We sailed on the 14th of December, a blazing hot day with scarcely a breath of wind to fill the sails; but the Captain was anxious to sprung up, and we were soon bowling along as fast as the old ship could be made to step along, all studding sails set, and so far a clean bill of health on board. On the 21st, however, I was sitting fever. I went aft and saw him, but there did not appear to be any very alarming symptoms just at present, so I prescribed He was, however, worse the next day, and the next, yet it was not a case of yelalarmed, and communicated my fears to the Captain.

"It is not yellow fever, of that I am "What is it then, doctor?" "Well, to tell truth, I can hardly say. Nothing that I can administer seems to know of his condition?"

The conversation was cut short by the Grierson had been seized with a sudden and alarming access of pain, and was apparently dying, adding that the patient wished to see me at once and alone. In my sea-chest and listen—"

I brought it, a small oblong mahogany let, and Mr. Grierson laying his hand upon it and at the same time detaching a key from a string by which it was sus-pended round his neck, with which his fingers played nervously during his re-stare, and think perhaps that my mind is wandering, but it is the truth. Twentywandering, but it is the truth. Twenty-five years ago—twenty-five years ago—twenty-five years of misery—I committed the deed which I am now in the presence of my Maker about to confess. I was a clerk in a banking house in London, and the facilities and opportunities for peculation offered me were too much for me to withstand, but circumstances occurred which convinced me that discovery could hardly be much start of the possible consequences. Snatching the box from the relaxing grasp of the corpse I rushed from the cabin and fell over Pete, the negro, who was just outside.

See to the Captain. He is dead;" and startled with horror. When there is fire n operation in Minneapolis, with 190 run five years ago—twenty-five years of mis-of stone and a capacity of 4,500 bbls, of ery—I committed the deed which I am years longer, if nothing is done to renew the natural resources.

It is stated that the strongest saline spring in New York State is what is known as the Liverpool well, near Syracuse, the specific gravity of which water has been found to be only 1,114, while that of the Dead Sea is 1,211; also, that 1,600 grains of water from this well yielded 149.34 grains of dry solid matter, while the latter yields 41 per cent., when the residuum is dried with a temperature of 180 degrees Fahrenheit.

M. Birnaum has found that when the feeling opportunities for peculation offered me were too much for me to withstand, but circumstances occurred which convinced me that discovery could hardly be much low to make my escape while there was yet time. Just at this juncture one of the senior clerks in the house had to be sent down to Bristol in charge of a very large sum of money in gold, and I was deputed to accompany him to guard the treasure. In those times matters were differently conducted from what they are in the present day and we had to take the money in a box, strongly secured and was in me; I wrestled with my assailant, the residuum is dried with a temperature of 180 degrees Fahrenheit.

M. BIRNAUM has found that when the feedwater of a boiler is heated by the injection of steam, fatty matters are occasionally carried into the boiler, which situated from one of the old inns in the city for the west of England. There was again with me, wrestling but Pete was again with me, wrestling trades which have recourse to what is occurred. At the next village, the local

"Here are £50,000 worth of diamonds," proceeded Mr. Grierson. "I have con-verted all my fortune into these gems, and these I intend to intrust to your care. Take this box at once to your own cabin and return to me for your instructions as to the disposal of the contents." I hesitated, but he was imperative.
"Not a word. I am dying fast and I

I took the box, locked it and left the 'What the devil are you doing here?' "Nothing, massa."

I passed on along the main deck to ward my cabin forward, and on my way I met Capt. McFarlane.

"How is your patient, doctor?"

"Dving, I fear. He cannot last long I passed on, and depositing the box in a place of safety returned. Grierson was rapidly sinking, and in a few broken sengow clippers, when a man had to make his will and set his house in order before putting his foot on board ship; and when once you had passed the Eddystone it was almost a house of the bankers, Messrs. Holt & Wardley, of Lombard street, and the man, whose name was given me, and whose representative I pledged my word to do my best to discover. Finally, binding me over not to dis-close what I had just been told, except to the parties named by him in his dying request, Grierson relapsed into a state of lanche came rushing down just as the partial insensibility, from which I in vain snow train was passing. The boys saw attempted to rouse him, and before half the sudden rift along the ridge, saw the an hour had clapsed the unhappy man was whole face of the mountain drop-

Going on deck I communicated the stant news to the Captain, who gave the neces-sary directions as to the funeral, which took place next day; and once more we were plowing our way through the blue water as though nothing had happened. I was an altered man. The strange train of engines struggled bravely, but commission with which I had been in it was impossible to bore through the trusted weighed on my mind. Over and great snow-slide. Iron and steel and over again in the stillness of the night I steam, brave men, and plow and engines opened the box of diamonds and gazed on the brilliancy of the gems. What proof avalanche. The face of the mountain is was there that they were not mine; the so steep that all of the snow which went box with the brass plate bearing the owner's name could be destroyed in a mo- headlong plunge into the canyon. A man ment, and then—— Over and over again the devil whispered to me, but, thank to Truckee for assistance. Seventy-five God! I resisted the temptation. I would men came hurrying to the rescue with fulfill the trust confided to me, and I shovels, and picks, and axes, and comprayed tervently for strength to resist the evil promptings of my baser self.

menced digging. It was four o'clock in the morning when the slide imprisoned evil promptings of my baser self.

One day I sat alone, the box unlocked the train, and seven o'clock found it only a my table, gazing with an irrepressible partially released. curiosity, which I was unable to control. on the jewels which scintillated with a devilish luster before my dazed vision.

The door suddenly opened and Capt. Mc-Farlane entered. "I beg your pardon, doctor; didn't know you were engaged." But before I could close the box or reply his eye had could close the box or reply his eye had a slight snow fell, and after covering the caught the shimmer of the brilliants.

before acting on his rash conclusion. He was incredulous. One concession I obtained and that was that all should be kept secret till our arrival in port and that I we acknowledge any particular fear, for should not be publicly branded as a sus- there is a lady on the snow-plow. opinion of German journalism. Wallenstein, adds the correspondent, could not bear to hear a cock crow, and Bismarck has a like antipathy toward the press.

The closing of the Franciscan monastery at Salminister, in Germany, having ly, without a moment's warning, the Captain fell sick. He was suffering from a low fever. I begged him to accept my the battle. Ah! And it is a service. " Never; you shall not poison me, too." Days passed, and the Captain got worse and worse; he babbled in his delirium of poison, of stolen jewels; and night and day I watched at his bedside, jealously excluding everybody who might perchance overhear his ravings and rise up chance overhear his ravings and rise up in judgment against me.

One day the crisis came. A few hours would determine all. If he died I was once more a free man, free from the imputation of a foul crime, free to carry out A French connoisseur lately entered a Paris "curiosity shop," and saw a beautiful Dresden vase. Asking the price, he was told £40, "and," said the dealer, "if I had the pair they would be worth £200." M. A. offered £20, and came several days remains to renew his proposition, but in the case me.

Wished to see me at once and alone. In obedience to the summons I went below, and having shut the cabin door and administered the necessary remedies asked the dying man (for there could be little doubt he was dying) the reason for his sleep his last—the devil was at my ellow the landanum bottle in my hand. sleep his last—the devil was at my elbow, the laudanum bottle in my hand. But at my sorest need the strength to resut at my sorest need the strength to resist was given to me. I poured out the proper dose, and advanced toward the cot in which the Captain lay. A strangelight was in his eyes. Rising suddenly, and throwing the bed-clothes off his tall, lean, sinewy form, he half leaped from the bed, and seizing the box of diamonds, which he had the webout his illness agrees. hand, he shricked:
"Never, never! Will you allow me to ital, continued:

"I am a murderer. Aye! you may it is a murderer. Twenty.

"I am a murderer and think perhaps that my mind is pillow—a convulsive shudder passed over pillow—a convulsive shudder passed over talk." The fifth gives a half-frightened talk." The fifth gives a half-frightened talk." The fifth gives a half-frightened talk."

and freeing myself from his grasp made for the companion-stairs. I had reached the deck, with what intention I knew not, but Pete was again with me, wrestling with the strength of a demon for the pos-

Trip on the Central Pacific:

Six powerful locomotives shrick defianc iron-throated monsters screams out its readiness to push us ahead faster. Each throttle-valve is wide open, and the old plow bounds along with the speed of a thunderbolt. The track is full of snow that has drifted in, or slidden down from the mountains, and the swift apron strikes it and tosses it right and left in billowy furrows, that on our right are hurled 500 feet into the canyon. Faster and still faster we go! And yet the speed must be increased. Just ahead is where the plow got stuck two years ago and laid all night. hould check the onward rush of the hot breathing, ten-wheeled engine behind us. But unless every pound of steam is being used the plow will come to a dead half We have reached the region of the snow-slides. Above our heads tower the icy summits of the Sierras. Below us is Cold Stream canyon. This morning an avahe does not pay it.

Putting all this discomfort aside, it would be folly to deny that money is stant an avalanche of 5,000 tons hurled all its fury against the train. It seemed as if the storm fiends were try ping on them, and in another partially released. The passenger en-gines came up and helped drag out the buried locomotives; yet with all the power of the five engines and seventy-five men it took four hours to clear away the snow and liberate the train. The avalanches will be plentiful and unusually terrible this winter. A few weeks ago ground to the depth of three or four inches froze solid as ice. On this slippery "Halloo! what's here?"

With a firm hand he closed the lid and read the name upon the plate. Innocent as I was, involuntarily stung by the remembrance of what my thoughts had been but a moment before, I quailed before his eye.

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consider yourself my prisoner."

"I know all now—that man was poisoned—consid "I know all now—that man was polsoned—consider yourself my prisoner."
I endeavored to explain. I told everything as it had occurred, and I appealed to the Captain to believe the story, or at the captain to the captain to the captain the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take in the stocks nor a B

Through all the sleet, and storm, and darkness she has unflinchingly watched curve enables us to look back at the army of giants that are straining muscles o iron and nerves of steel to ward despite the wrath of the elements. They pant and struggle, and seem to be exerting all the marvelous strength they in short, quick, labored puffs that could be heard for a mile. We are on a heavy up grade and the snow has so filled the track that it is almost impossible to pro-ceed. Satterfield again gives the bell-rope a couple of quick pulls. The head engine is like a wheel horse, always ready to do whatever is bidden. Two loud, determined tive must repeat each signal that is given velous power of expression in the voices of engines. The first is determined and steady. The second has been straining every nerve, and evidently has its lever clear back "around the corner," and the he had throughout his illness never allieady." The third is perfectly indifferent about the matter, but is quite willing ent about the matter, but is quite willing to try, and like a sailor's "Yo, heave "Never, never! Will you allow me to be poisoned like a dog! Help! some of you." The effort was too much; clasping and cannot afford to whistle long; so it startled with horror. When there is fire or the speed is too great or an engine is when any signal is given, the tone of the engine's voice conveys full half the mean-

Wealth and the Want of It.

siculty carried into the boiler, which is not wetted by water, and this may lead to the seasons form a deposit which is not wetted by water, and this may lead to the cost of the cost of the cost of the structure of the boiler, maxmuch as the could become master of such a sum I session of the poiler, inasmuch as the could become master of such a sum I be struction of the boiler, in a sum of the total first of the conjunt of the conjunt of the post reversing the post reversing the post reversing the post reversing the constraint of the conjunt of the conjun save by the man at the wheel, who, half-hidden by the wheel-house, had not seen with her one good feature; the lad who the state of the proposes of the state of th but I would rather die so than accept the possibility of becoming rich at the terrible tion, the friend who is dead. "Philosophy," says the poor student, "is well enough; but I should be willing

-False hair is not fashionable in Paris now.

-False hair is not fas

"Oh, I don't want to tell!" she whis-A Sierra Snow-Plow-A Midnight has or can have other advantages. Surely the wisest plan is to face the facts and pered. weigh his own good fortune against that "Didn't I tell you that if you can. of the simply rich man; to overstate or understate neither, and to discover wheth-

oney, but the public will require of him ontributions to city enterprises, to charity amount, and denounce him as miserly if ashionable society, from his business col

vo man of great wealth has been remem ody, he took means to keep his memory green by an act of liberality. The men who have changed the destinies of the country, who have molded its thought, who are held now in the hearts of the peole as finer and higher types of humanity tance men of great wealth, nor did they make the accumulation of money their his own arrogance. He declares that he wants thousands to give away to help the poor, asylums, etc. Does he give away his dollars freely? Does he use his influ-

Before the Detroit Police Court.

A TRANQUIL MAN.

ms and solemnly said:
"Now start your old machinery!"

was the reply.
"And that you are out of money."

"Put me down as out of money," he answer.

"I understand that you are a stranger here," said His Honor.

"Put me down as drunk on the walk."
"Mr. Robinson, you don't care much w this thing turns out, do you?" asked nswered the prisoner.

"Do you want work?"
"Well, I suppose I'd work if there was

"Docs it make any difference to you whether I send you up or let you go?" continued the Court.
"Not a great deal, though I like to be the prisoner.

"You'd better quit that!" remarked the Court as he opened the warrant. "The prisoner in a soft voice. "Why did they come up on the root of a building where I "Can you leave town?"

"Well, I suppose I can."
"Will you leave town?"
"I will if anybody wants me to."

han themselves, were not in a single in or religion, commensurate with the full night like an arrow. The white drifts are er fate be really as unjust to him as he every day in the week if I wanted to." thinks. It is to be remembered first that It was an awful lie, and for a minute mold-boards of the plow in feathery foam.

The swift wind, accelerated by the marvelous speed or our flying train, buris the sleet, keen and cutting, into our face and eyes. Frank Satterfield, the conductor of the snow-plow gives the ball rows a worth half a million of capital surrounds.

It is to be remembered first that was an awful lie, and for a minute everybody held their breath. Bijah reached over for the crowbur and toyed with it, and the hunk of molasses candy fell from the desk to the floor with a prescribed dress, and usually the man worth half a million of capital surrounds. worth half a million of capital survey as the bell-rope a himself with as much personal luxury as the couple of quick pulls and each of the couple of quick pulls and each of the himself with as much personal luxury as the man whose yearly income equals that to come."—Detroit Free Press. fortune is usually invested in ways which MULTUM IN PARVO. remove it from the daily handling of its owner. It flows in the great currents of THE first duty on T-Don't forget to trade: it is regarded by the possessor as something apart from himself—a weight to be carefully carried and given over to his heirs. If he wore it, like an Indian A GEORGIA mule wrecked a freight train the other day. about like Prince Esterhazy sowing pearls ISAAC NEWTON QUEST, of Troy, N. Y. rom his coat, it would seem to pertain t wants to be elected Coroner. im personally and to enter into his daily bleasure. Another certainty is that, no SALT LAKERS have over $400,000 in vested in stocks of the great Bonanza natter what his capital may be, the de-nands upon him will more than double the interest. His millions may be tied up so as to yield but small returns in ready long now. Another evidence of hard

THE Utah Mail speaks of a Salt Lake store having a "petition" run through the center. A SALOON-REEPER at Sunbury, Pa., was fined $500 for selling liquor without a li cense recently power. The simply rich man commands a certain kind of prompt deference from It required $628,259.10 to pay the exenses of the Mississippi State Government in 1875. eagues, from his grocer and his boot-"IF there is anything which will make lack, which will not be paid to a shabby oat, no matter what culture or picty is my mouth water," said an old toper, don't want to see it." uttoned up in it. Our poor young fel-ow, however, would do well to look into "GIVE us a rest," says the Chicago whis this deference and find whether it is the best kind or not. It is prompt, but it is spell it with another r.—Cincinnati Times. not sincere. If your millionaire is mean or ignorant or dishonest, fashionable society and grocer and bootblack know it at crat is weak and mortal and susceptible. a glance and sneer as they bow. It is vulgar homage paid by vulgar minds to a common thing. It is noticeable, too, that it wholly disappears at the man's death.

A TRAMP found a $4,500 check on the

A TRAMP found a $4,500 check on the Ashland Banking Company at Shamokin, Pa., the other day and returned it to its pered for a year in the history of this country unless, like Girard, Astor or Pea-THE editor who was told that his las article was as clear as mud promptly re-plied: "Well, that covers the ground, DURING December 2.088 329 pounds of bullion and 2,472,458 pounds of silver ore were shipped over the Utah Southern

An Ulster overcoat is a very nice and cozy institution, but when a fellow does "But these," says the poor lad, "were exceptional cases. I have not the material in me to make an Emerson, a Jefferhis neighbor. not own one himself it looks awfully on on, a Lincoln." He has material to An Iowa man announces the discovery make at least an intelligent, industrious of lawyer, tradesman or mechanic. In any Roanother boy who looks like Charley in the stocks nor a Black Friday can take call a cockroach "a fellow of infinite ence to the uttermost for the poor? If he does he will be sure to know that they are accounts of the City Treasurer in the hands of a Helper more able than himself, and that in that country to which over again. With all their accomplish ments, the English have not yet learned acter temper and charity are enduring tight size and pouring brass around it.

A CALIFORNIA observer has discovered society where the dissolute, the idle and the unprincipled can sooner become loaf-HE was a tranquil man. When they rought him before the bar he deliberate.

ers, paupers and criminals than in the Golden State.

There is every reason to believe that the dynamite fiend was an aristocrat, with no sympathy for the masses. If he'd wanted to elevate the working classes he'd have shipped his explosive on an emigrant ship .- St. Louis Republican. An editor of Johnston, Pa., says a flock mile wide flew over that place on Sunday And yet some of our exchanges persist i calling Jimmy Blanchard the champion liar of America .- Chicago Times. Boston has a class called "the deserv ing poor." This does not appear to be wholly a title of courtesy, either, for there is more or less perspiration in it. See here: "The Temporary Home provided 3,414 single meals last month for the deserving poor, and in turn received the ben efit of 6,828 hours of wood-sawing." THERE is this difference between those two temporal blessings—health and money —money is the most envied, but the least enjoyed; health is the most enjoyed, but the least envied; and this superiority of the one is still more obvious when we re-

OVER in Washoe County a day or two ago a Constable had to call a witness named Beers—I. C. Beers. Mr. Constable stepped forth and vociferated: "I. C. Beers! I. C. Beers! The first call armsed on all series in the many statements."

Sied her thanks for the beautiful prize.

"I shall hate her," whispered Julie, "No, no," whispered a tiny girl at her side, "do not hate her—poor Griseldals we must be add for the beautiful prize. the better impression you will make on the people of the State of Michigan."

"Why did they lock me up?" asked the prisoner in a soft voice. "Why did they come up on the root of a building where I amazement at the Constable the content of the state of Michigan."

"No, no," whispered a tiny girl at her side, "do not hate her—poor Griseldal we must be glad for her—don't you see that although she has the prize there is no one to care?"

And Griselda beard Merton care. "You see that although she has the prize there is no one to care?" struggling to sit erect on the sidewalk. Rubbing his eyes and gazing in fuddled amazement at the Constable, the old fellow waited until he had concluded his call, then approvingly said: "Th-a-that's right, old fellow. Keep yer eye o-on the blame s-scamp!"—Virginia (Nev.) Enterprise.

A APPLIED to B for a loan of $100. B

A APPLIED to B for a loan of $100. B replied: "My dear A, nothing would please me better than to oblige you, and aginaw.

I will do it. I haven't $100 by me, but make a note and I'll indorse it, and you can get the money from the bank." Grateful A proceeded at once to write the note.
"Stay," said B, "make it $200; I want $100 myself." A did so, B indorsed the paper, the bank discounted it, and the money was divided. When the note was due B was in California, and A had to meet the payment. What he is unable to cipher out is whether he borrowed $100 or B or B borrowed $100 of him.-Lowe mark, and in a very weak voice she remarked:

"All life, human or animal, has its sad hours," said His Honor as he moved a hours," said His Honor as he moved a way sheds, which were then beginning to

'Everybody seems to be down on me," that may be employed .- N. Y. Sun. she sobbed.

"You were here last month about this time, Mrs. Cosgrove, and what did I say to you?" he asked.

"The Philadelphia Press says that John W. Forney, "having brought his Centennial labors in Europe to a point

Every variety of Mercantile, Corporation, Bus'-ess, Railroad and Ornamental Printing done in he best of style and at the lowest living price. Satisfaction guaranteed in every parti Orders by wail promptly attended to.

ADVERTISING RATES,

basis of 50 cents for one square one week.

One inch in space down the column is considered.

Yearly advertisers, taking one-fourth columno more, will be entitled to a l beral discount. Local notices, for one insertion, 10c. per line

A discount will be made from this price to those contracting for any number of lines for any def-

Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance. Regular advertisements due quarterly.

JOH DEPARTMENT.

Our Bons and Ginls.

nite length of time. Business Cards, $1.25 per line per year.

All charges for advertising are made from the

"WORKED AND WON,"

GRISELDA! Griselda!"

"Here, mother"—and the crooked-thumbed old book was slipped away in a "I gave you work and I doubt if you have touched it yet!" It is done, mother.'

"Done? Then why have you not been back again? It is for me to bake, and brew, and mind the child, while you take Griselda slipped in through the door and stooped on one knee to hold the cry-ing "child" to her breast and to kiss his wet cheeks.

"Julie will learn it best after all, I expect," was running through her mind as sire fastened wheels to the mite of a she fastened wheels to the coach to make it "go," and played "express," until the child rolled over and press," until the child rolled over and over, bumping his head in his unguard

"Where are your thoughts wool-gathering now, that the child must batter the She lifted him, laughter and tears chas-ng each other over his face, and tried to rget that Julie and the rest were proba bly at that moment tugging away at the task which was set for the prize, and tried to forget the little, hard ruts that made trying and rough the path of her Rocking backward and forward on the rickety chair, humming a snatch of a gay little tune, the child's chubby arms around her neck, she found him after a while quite asleep, and after seeing him snugly tucked in his cradle-bed she skipped along the passage, the first lines of the prize-task upon her lips and hope coming up in her heart that maybe after all she night win.

"Is it sleep you want that you go to the The eyes fell and the feet stood still be-

The eyes fell and the feet stood still be-fore the glance of the mother, with her brisk air and her keen eye.

'School in the mornings and idleness in the afternoon! There is no time for idleness to-day. Scour the hearth and polish the knives and bring water from Griselda only laid her hand on her little, panting heart, and turned, sadly enough, to polish and scour instead of poring over the crooked-thumbed book in the attic "I will do them well and quickly," she thought to herself. "There is something left of the sunlight yet." And her fingers polished and polished and scoured, and the pump-handle briskly flew up and down. So Griselda was done, and she tripped softly to the top of the house and was soon lost over the crumpled old book.

"Griselda! Griselda!" shrilly echoed up never can do it! Nobody cares if I lose or win; oh, it is sad when nobody cares." This she half said, half thought to herself, as she ran down the stairs: "I

"Idle, idle, worthless child! bring fagots and mend the fire; take up the ashes. The hearth scoured and the ashes ungratitude in a poor man you may take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.

The Mayor of Buffalo says "the city's dollar should go as far as the citizen s."
About $350,000 of 'em, according to the accounts of the City Treasurer went rather farther.

The great English cancon is to be bored over again. With all their accountshould be as much generous description of the fire, and swept the askes bare and clean, and peeped in each corner to find the dust, line after line in the musical rhyme passing through her mind like the notes of a song. And as she stood with her duster in the middle of the floor she thought: "I will work and study and win; the words are beautiful enough to learn without a prize." learn without a prize," So all that day and the next and the next the mother fretted and scolded, and the child slept and woke and slept again, and Griselda studied a line at a time in the odd minutes one by one. In another house, a block away, Julie Stevens rocked backward and forward in her pretty damask chair.

"I am tired," she said, holding her paper doll at arms'-length over her head. "Are you ready for the examination

'No, Merton Stevens, you know I am "How should I know ?" "You know just well enough I have not begun yet."
"Somebody's going to miss it, then."
"No, somebody is not. Clara's away and Meta is sick, and there's nobody else in the class that does much but that odd ooking girl with mean clothes "Maybe the odd girl will get it."

"Merton Stevens! please talk of some thing you know better about. She learns, I know, but do you really think Miss Douglass would give a bit of a prize to a barefooted girl?"

"Is the prize to be for fine clothes?" "Is the prize to be for fine clothes?"
Julie, too indignant to answer, opened a book with an injured manner, and if Merton had not been making a kite with wonderful bobs, and the paper doll had not been so tempting, and if she had not been so sure of Miss Douglass' good will—so sure of the prize—she might have made headway much taster and better.

But the day came when parents and fond mothers looked tenderly on their little girls as the questions went around and whether I send you up or let you go?"
continued the Court.

"Not a great deal, though I like to be around when there's anything going on."
"I guess I'll send you up for sixty days. I believe you are lazy and shiftless. You don't talk like a man of enterprise. Go back in there and sit down."
"Hadn't you just as lief I'd stand up?" inquired the prisoner.
He went in and stood.

A QUESTION OF VERACITY.
"Is this the way to serve a hard-working man?" asked Joseph Frost, as Bijah placed him in position.

His Honor didn't say.
"Do you hear what I say?" demanded the prisoner.

Whether I send you up or let you go?" the least and would not part with health for money, but that the richest with health for money to the least and the richest with health for money to health.—Collon.

A writter from Visalia, Cal., says:
"The meanest and one of the most stingy men in town, named Mr. Z., was taken suddenly ill and was not expected to recover. He asked to have his will made out, which was accordingly done. After reading it over carefully he arose, drew on his pantaloons leisurely, and was heard to exclaim: 'Egad! this is too much to leave any man.' He can be seen walking the streets now as well as ever.''

Over in Washoe County a day or two "I shall hate her," whispered Julie, "I shall hate her, her mind—"She has something better; she has worked and won."—Churchman.

"Pshaw! my gov'ner'll let me go."
"Well, I haven't said anything to my pop about it." Such talk among boys is very common. When boys get to be of a cerseem to think it manly, in speaking to their fathers to other boys, to use some slang word. We hear "Old Man," "Dad," "Old Squaretoes," "Pop," "Governor," or "Gov.," instead of father, one of the best and which should be—next to mother—the dearest of names. This mother—the dearest of names. This nicknaming is not by any means confined to rude and rough boys, but unfortunately prevails among those who have been well brought up, properly educated and have pleasant homes. It would be said indeed if these names were used to express distances to the property of the said indeed in the said in t from the tiny child or the full grown man. Boys, don't use slang at all, but especially not when you mean father.—Prairie